He and his family live in Charlottesville, Virginia, where he also serves on the staff of Christ Episcopal Church. He is the author of several books including Seculosity and Low Anthropology.

MAGNUS PERSSON

Magnus Persson is a husband, father and grandfather. He is an ordained Verbi Divini Minister and works as a pastor for EFS - a missional renewal movement in the Swedish Evangelical Lutheran Church. He is the author of the book Reclaiming the Reformation. He is also the network coordinator of Re:formera and the host for its weekly podcast.

ERICA SORENSEN

Erica Sorensen is in charge of Individual Partnerships in the Development Department at 1517. She holds a B.A. in both International Economics and Spanish from Valparaiso University and a M.A. in Teaching from the University of St. Thomas. Erica has a diverse work background in non-profit business operations, K-12 education, and fundraising. She is a passionate Gen Z advocate and speaker to church leadership and youth alike, teaching about the unique joys and challenges of sharing the Gospel message with young people in a post-Christian world.

NICHOLAS HOPMAN

Nicholas Hopman serves as Senior Pastor of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church in Iron Mountain, Michigan (UP) & has a PhD from Princeton Theological Seminary, specializing in the Reformation in Strasbourg. His work has been published by the Neue Zeitschrift für Systematische Theologie und Religionsphilosophie, Lutheran Quarterly, Baker Academic, Fortress Press, and Lutheran Forum.

MELINA SMITH

Melina Smith is the founder of StoryMakers NYC, clergy wife, and mother of two. Drawing on her background in Social Work and Child Development and her eye for design, she imagined and developed Creative Arts Camp, a week-long outreach program to the Gramercy and East Village NYC neighborhoods. Each camp focused on one of the great stories of the Bible with Melina's trademark commitment to whimsy and beauty. Eventually, with her team of writers, artists and jacks-of-all-trades, Melina transformed Creative Arts Camp into StoryMakers, a series of zines to foster connection and more fun for Sunday school programs and families.

DAN VAN VOORHIS

Dan van Voorhis is an author, historian, professor and Scholar in Residence at 1517. After receiving his Ph.D. in History from the University of St. Andrews, Dr. van Voorhis spent 11 years teaching history and political thought at Concordia University Irvine. Dan now spends his time writing and speaking for 1517 and hosting/producing the podcasts The Soul of Christianity and The Christian History Almanac.

GRETCHEN RONNEVIK

Gretchen is a mother to six kids who are quickly growing into adults. Her family lives in western Minnesota. Gretchen works as a speaker & writer and is the author of Ragged: Spiritual Disciplines for the Spiritually Exhausted and The Story of Katie Luther: The Nun Who Escaped to True Freedom. She also co-hosts the 1517 network podcast Freely Given.

KELSI KLEMBARA

CALEB KEITH

Caleb Keith is a Summa Cum Laude and Honors Scholar graduate of Concordia University Irvine. He holds an MA in systematic and philosophical theology from the University of Nottingham. In 2018, he published a translation of Luther's Heidelberg Disputation. He produces and co-hosts the Thinking Fellows and Outlaw God podcasts and oversees the 1517 Podcast network.

DELWYN CAMPBELL

Delywn X. Campbell is a Lutheran pastor serving Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Lansing, MI. Del has served as a strategic mission developer for many years for the LCMS. He is the co-host of the brand-new podcast The Study along with Flame and Lex Lutheran. Del lives in Lansing with his wife Lenita and their two daughters.

DONAVON RILEY

Donavon Riley is a Lutheran pastor, conference speaker, author, and contributing writer for 1517. He is the author of the books Crucifying Religion and The Withertongue Emails. He is also the co-host of the Banned Books podcast.

JOHN W. HOYUM

John W. Hoyum is a graduate of Bethel University and Luther Seminary, both in St. Paul, Minnesota. He also holds a PhD in systematic theology from the University of Aberdeen. He now resides back home in the Pacific Northwest, serving as the pastor of Port Madison Lutheran Church on Bainbridge Island, Washington. He is the co-host of the Preaching the Text podcast and teaches theology online at Grand View University in Des Moines, Iowa.

HARRISON GOODMAN

Harrison Goodman preaches Christ crucified as a light that shines in darkness and a hope for the hopeless. As content executive, he helps to make these same gifts known online by employing the many voices and talents of our brothers and sisters in Christ. He believes that while the internet cannot replace Word and Sacrament ministry, it doesn't need to try. He shapes HT content to point youth and young adults toward the gifts given in your sanctuary.

ERICK SORENSEN

Erick Sorensen manages church partnerships for the Relations and Development Department at 1517. He has a B.S. from Biola University and an M.Div. from Lutheran Brethren Seminary. ## JOHN ANDREW SCHREINER

John Andrew Schreiner musician, composer, arranger, & producer. In a professional music career that has spanned over three decades John has influenced almost every genre of music, musical production, and composition, and this influence and creativity has been recognized by his peers in his 2010 Emmy award, an ASCAP award and seven Dove awards.

1517 is rooted in the legacy of Martin Luther and the first evangelicals of the Reformation.

We create and distribute theological and apologetic resources anchored in the central message of the Bible: that Christ died for sinners and rose for their justification. Through the proclamation of the Gospel, we aim to give assurance and consolation to Christians, enable individuals to serve their neighbors in freedom, and strengthen the church.

Our resources include a podcast network, daily articles, speakers, a publishing house, annual conferences, and an online academy.
